Dear WAKO Members,

On behalf of the Turkish Kickboxing Federation, I am delighted to extend a formal invitation to you for the 10th Traditional Turkish Open World Cup, which will be held in our beautiful city of Antalya from May 14-18, 2025.

We are proud to host this prestigious tournament, which will feature all kickboxing disciplines, including K1 Style, Low Kick, Full Contact, Kick Light, Light Contact, Point Fighting, Parakickboxing, Team Fights, Forms, and the Grand Champion Open. Athletes in all categories-Children, Cadets, Juniors, Seniors, and Veterans-will be warmly welcomed to showcase their talents on this global platform.

The Turkish Open World Cup is not only an elite-level competition but also a unique opportunity to strengthen friendships and solidarity within the global kickboxing community. Participants will have the chance to experience the renowned Turkish hospitality and explore the many wonders of Antalya, a city known for its stunning Mediterranean coastline, rich history, and vibrant culture.

We aim to provide an unforgettable experience for athletes, coaches, officials, and spectators alike. From thrilling matches to moments of friendship and cultural exchange, this event will hold a significant place on the international kickboxing calendar. We are especially pleased that Parakickboxing will be featured in the tournament for the first time, making this event even more special for us.

Please mark your calendars and plan to join us for this exceptional tournament. We look forward to welcoming WAKO members from around the world to Antalya and sharing an inspiring and unforgettable experience.

We sincerely appreciate your ongoing dedication to the sport of kickboxing and your contributions to the growth of our global community.

A heartfelt thank you to WAKO President Roy Baker, the WAKO Executive Board members, and the entire WAKO family.

Warm regards,

Mr. Salim KAYICI

President of Turkish Kickboxing Federation

Vice President of WAKO IF

1st Vice President of WAKO Europe

President of WAKO Mediterranean Kickboxing Federation

Welcome Note from the President of the World Association of Kickboxing Organizations

Dear Athletes,
Coaches, Officials,
and Valued Guests,

It is with immense pride and excitement that I welcome you to the 2025 WAKO World Cup in the stunning city of Antalya, Türkiye - the gateway between Europe and Asia. This remarkable event represents not only a celebration of skill and sportsmanship but also a crucial milestone in the WAKO World Rankings, further solidifying our commitment to excellence in kickboxing.

As we gather here in Antalya, we reflect on the incredible journey our sport has undertaken, particularly under the esteemed banner of the International Olympic Committee (IOC). The progress we have made collectively is nothing short of inspiring. Kickboxing has gained recognition and respect on the global stage, and events like the WAKO World Cup play an essential role in this evolution.

This championship provides a unique opportunity for athletes from diverse backgrounds to showcase their talents, compete at the highest level, and earn valuable points toward their world rankings. It is a chance to not only challenge themselves but also to build bridges of friendship and camaraderie with fellow competitors from around the world.

As we look to the future, let us embrace the spirit of unity and sportsmanship that kickboxing embodies. Together, we are shaping the next generation of champions and ensuring that our beloved sport continues to thrive and inspire.

Thank you for being part of this extraordinary event. I wish you all an exhilarating and memorable experience at the 2025 WAKO World Cup!

Best regards,

Mr. Roy BAKER

President, World Association of

Kickboxing Organizations (WAKO)
